

The Nest

Welcome to The Nest!

Greetings NCHO, I would like to welcome you to The Nest! My name is Curtis "CJ" Jackson Jr. and I am your 2022-2023 President for the North Carolina Housing Officers (NCHO). I am elated to have the opportunity to serve in this role and give back to an organization that has been a launching pad for my career in higher education. We are very excited to launch The Nest, an online resource created to support the continued professional development of the staff on your campuses through the publication of articles and promotion of in-person and virtual engagement opportunities.

I work with an amazing team and we're excited about the opportunity we have to represent and serve you! In the coming weeks, I will be hosting some listening sessions and I look forward to engaging with you. I look forward to seeing you at our Annual Conference in Raleigh from October 18th - October 20th as we celebrate 50 Years of Excellence. Thank you for everything you do and continue to be the spark in the lives of your students and staff.

A Word from Our NC State Representative (SEAHO)

Hello NCHO!

My name is Gia Lee, and I am reaching out to you to introduce myself as your North Carolina State Representative.

It was great to connect with some of you at SEAHO 2023 in Richmond. I hope that those of you who could make it to SEAHO this year left with ideas and inspiration for the work we do on our campuses.

Please know that I will be reaching out to NCHO with regular updates from SEAHO as well from our state.

I am working on some pretty awesome goals this year to better communicate what is happening in our region which include:

- Reaching out to SHOs to discuss communication within our state.
- Sending reminders to fill out assessments, join committees, 2024 updates, and more.
- Ensuring that North Carolina continues to be a well represented state within our region.

If you have any questions about getting involved or need someone to advocate to SEAHO, please let me know! I am always here to help!

Please reach out to me at ncstaterrep@seaho.org or 336-758-6277 if you have any questions or concerns.
